BE THE MATCH BONE MARROW DONOR!

Villanova's Matt Szczur has had so much to do last year – play football and baseball provide bone marrow to a toddler with juvenile leukemia, keep up his schoolwork. "I told Coach (Andy) Talley I would have to miss the game to help save this little girl's life," Szczur said. "All the coaches understood completely. If it was their child, they would want someone to help save their life, too." "Szczur didn't have to do much convincing, because Talley was the person who signed him up to be a bone marrow donor in the first place. Let's not forget HERO!!
