

NJASK WORKSHOPS

When: 2/24, 3/10 and 3/24

Where: The RMT Media Center

Time: 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Who is hosting it? Mrs. Bucko, Mrs. Batten and Miss Vassar

Why: NJASK nights will provide you with tips and strategies for the NJASK.

Dinner will be served promptly at 6 p.m.

NJASK testing can be a stressful time for both students and parents. In an effort to relieve some testing anxiety, we have put together a positive and informative workshop for both parents and students.

Our mission is to teach effective strategies that will help our students to be successful on the NJASK test. During this workshop, we will strengthen skills in writing and reading by exposing you to the different types of persuasive, narrative, speculative and expository writings. A break-down of the 6-point and 4-point rubric will also be delivered for complete understanding.

This workshop will be a hands-on learning experience where you will be asked to participate actively in the workshop. We hope to see you there! Please be aware that each workshop concentrates on a different area of testing.

Workshops are not repeated. Your presence is appreciated at all workshops.

Thank You,

RMT Staff and Administration

Please fill out, detach and return to Homeroom by

Student's First and Last name _____

(Please include yourself in the total amount of attendees)

___ Number of attendees 2/24/11 Open-Ended

___ Number of attendees 3/10/11 Persuasion

___ Number of attendees 3/24/11 Narrative, Speculative and Expository

